DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-53 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-86 of copending and parent Application No. 09/769,168. Claims 1-86 of the parent application "anticipates" application claims 1-53 and are not patentably distinct from the patent claims. Thus, it is apparent that the more specific patent claims encompass the application claims. Following in the rationale in In re Goodman cited in the previous paragraph, where applicant has once been granted a patent containing a claim for the specific or narrower invention, applicant may not then obtain a second patent with a claim for the generic or broader invention without first submitting a terminal disclaimer. For example, claims 1 and 8 of the parent application anticipates claim 19 of the present application.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Information Disclosure Statement

Applicants have not yet resubmitted the Information Disclosure Statement from the parent applications. Note that the Applicants do not have to resubmit the information as long as the Applicants do not want the information printed on the patent, MPEP 609.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-53 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting, but would be allowable by filing a terminal disclaimer.
